Why Panthers

The Panther (felis concolor) was adopted as the University of Pittsburgh's mascot at a meeting of student and alumni leaders in the early autumn of 1909. According to George M. P. Baird, '09, who made the suggestion, it was chosen for the following reasons: (1) the Panther was the most formidable creature once indigenous to the Pittsburgh region; (2) it had ancient, heraldic standing as a noble animal; (3) the happy accident of alliteration; (4) the close approximation of its hue to the old gold of the University's colors (old gold and blue), hence its easy adaptability in decoration; and (5) the fact that no other college or university then employed it as a symbol. The suit of the Panther mascot is made of pelts of five Rocky Mountain panthers sent to Pittsburgh from Denver. The suit was made at a cost of $600 and took three weeks.

AREA CODE FOR PITT NUMBERS IS 412

This Is The University of Pittsburgh

The University of Pittsburgh has just completed a decade of academic achievement which has gained it a new national prominence among institutions of higher learning, and recently, the Board of Trustees reaffirmed the institution's goal of sustained growth toward excellence, pledging the university's resources to build on past gains.

Those gains, to some degree, are measurable. The full-time faculty has doubled, 94 percent have Ph.D. degrees, teaching loads have been reduced, new and improved teaching resources are in use, and salaries have doubled. Physical plant acquisitions and construction alone have exceeded one hundred million dollars. More than 90 percent of entering freshmen are from the upper two fifths of their graduating classes. Ten new centers have been established and a number of new departments.

The spirit of the university is urban and international. Distinguished visiting professors and lecturers provide a continuous stimulus for faculty and students alike. Programs and projects are designed to enrich the intellectual experience of both faculty and students.

Both in its undergraduate and its graduate programs, the university attempts to establish, for every student, the best foundation both for earning a living and for leading a worthwhile life.

In the coming decade, the university will get bigger, perhaps growing to twice its present enrollment. Organizational structures constantly will be exploded so that the university can adjust to the needs of larger numbers of students without creating a depersonalized atmosphere in which they will feel a lack of individuality.

The university's immediate and long range objective is to offer the highest quality of education possible in a cosmopolitan atmosphere of free inquiry. It has infused its programs and student body with an international perspective, in the belief that a broadly based, world-oriented institution will be of best service to its region.

The University of Pittsburgh was founded in 1787, eleven years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence. It began in a log house as the Pittsburgh Academy, and achieved university status in 1819.

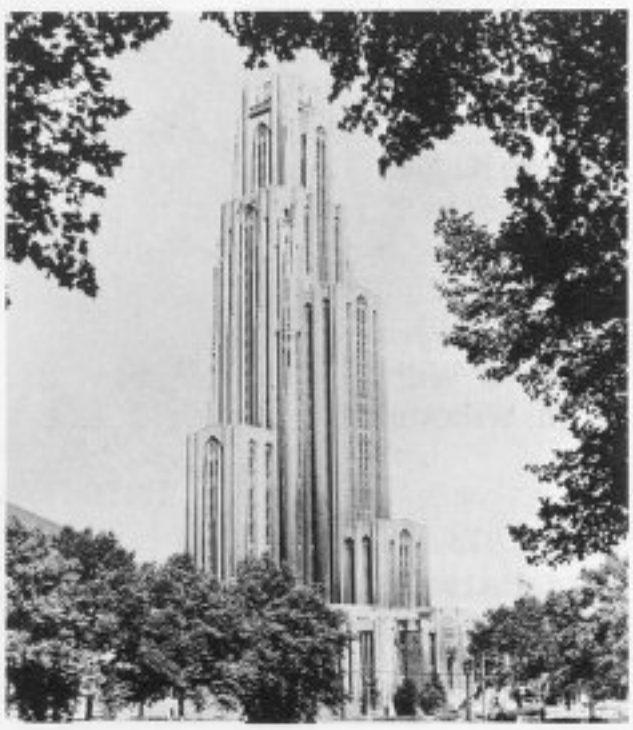
The university is a private, state-related institution which receives support from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and income from endowment, gifts and private sources. It is non-denominational.

It is composed of 18 degree granting schools and divisions. These schools are: Liberal Arts, Education, Engineering, Law, Dentistry, Medicine, Nursing, Pharmacy, and General Studies, and the Graduate Schools of Public Health, Public and International Affairs, Business, Social Work, and the new Graduate School of Library and Information Sciences. The divisions are those of the Humanities, Social Sciences, and Natural Sciences.

In order to extend its educational services throughout its natural home region, the university in September 1963 opened three new regional campuses at Bradford, Greensburg, and Titusville. Together with the Johnstown campus, which was opened in 1927, the new campuses are partial cross-sections of the university as a whole. Each provides the first four terms of undergraduate liberal arts and engineering study; post-baccalaureate work at the Master's level both in professional fields and the disciplines and adult education programs.

Located in Pittsburgh's civic and cultural center, the university's main campus comprises some 40 buildings on a 120 acre site just two miles from the city's business center. The campus is adjacent to 500 acres of rolling civic park and nearby are concert halls, museums and theaters, research institutions, book stores, art galleries, clubs and restaurants, churches, playgrounds and an arboretum; other colleges and hospitals.

A one hundred and twenty million dollar building program is projected for the next six years.



DR. WESLEY W. POSVAR

Chancellor

Dr. Wesley W. Posvar, former Rhodes Scholar and Chairman of the Social Sciences Division at the Air Force Academy, became Pitt's 15th chancellor on June 1st this year. He is 41.

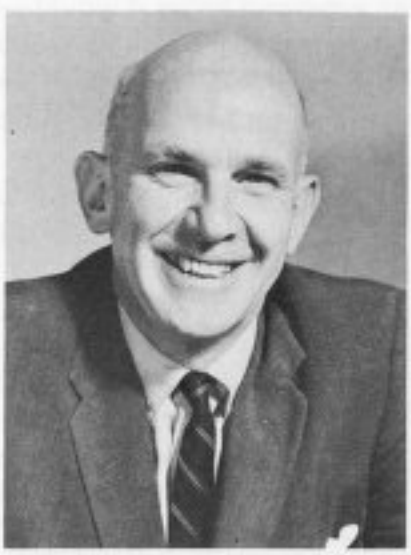
Dr. Posvar, whose scholarly achievements have gained national attention, holds five academic degrees. He graduated first in his class from West Point in 1946, achieving one of the highest grades in the Academy's history. He subsequently was a Rhodes Scholar at Oxford University from 1948-51, receiving both his B.A. and M.A. in Philosophy, Politics and Economics. He also earned the Master of Public Administration and the Ph.D. in political science from Harvard in 1964.

Dr. Posvar was the first Air Force officer to win a Rhodes Scholarship, and the youngest full professor at the Air Force Academy when he was appointed to head the political science department there in 1957. In 1959 he was named one of the Ten Outstanding Young Men in the U.S. by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. The new chancellor was a Littauer Fellow in the Graduate School of Public Administration at Harvard from 1962-64, and a Research Fellow at M.I.T.'s Center for International Studies from 1963-64.

Married to the former Mildred Miller, the couple has three children—Wesley, 16; Marina, 12; and Lisa, 6. Mrs. Posvar, under her maiden name, is an internationally known solo artist with the Metropolitan, San Francisco, Vienna, Berlin and Munich Operas. She also has sung as a guest artist with the Pittsburgh Opera.

FRANK CARVER

Athletic Director



Frank Carver, 58, was named Athletic Director at Pitt in November, 1959, after serving four months in an acting capacity.

A native of Beaver, Pa., he entered Pitt in 1927 and graduated in 1931 after having worked two years in the athletic publicity department. He served as athletic publicity director from 1931 to 1948, with three years off for service as a noncommissioned officer in the Air Force during World War II. Just prior to entering the Air Force he served briefly as head of the Physical Education and Intramural Department of the University.

Carver was named acting director of athletics in the Summer of 1948, and when Captain Tom Hamilton took over as director of athletics he became graduate manager holding this position until he was named acting director in the Summer of 1959.

He is currently serving as vice president of District II of the NCAA, vice president of the ECAC, and chairman of the Eligibility, Principles and Policies Committee of the ECAC.

Married to Marty Carver, the couple has one son, Mike, 17. The Carvers live in Beaver.

DAVE HART

Head Football Coach

Hired on December 6, 1965, to rebuild Pitt's football fortunes, Dave Hart is well on his way towards leaving a vivid mark in Panther football history. Dynamic, enthusiastic and full of seemingly boundless energy, he is fast gaining the reputation as one of the finest recruiters in major college football.

This man who has been asked to rebuild football at Pitt is a young 41-year-old whose most recent jobs were as an assistant coach at Navy and Kentucky. He brought to Pitt an immense desire and capacity to work—"We will work together," he told his first squad—and immeriately he began to place an emphasis on recruiting as the most important part of the rebuilding job.

Recruiting means selling the University of Pittsburgh, and he and his staff have been doing just that. During the first four months, Dave made over 70 speeches at banquets and affairs in the Tri-State area. He visited the boys' homes, talked with their parents, and attended their high school games. In short, it seemed to his wife, Patti, that the only time he came home was to sleep—and then, always for less than eight hours.

His first team at Pitt last season did just as everyone knew it would—lose. Although he inherited a squad woefully lacking in both numbers and ability, Hart was bitterly disappointed in its 1-9 record. "It will be different the second time around," Hart vows. "We've got some athletes this time (exactly half the squad are sophomores he recruited after being hired in December). I can see some light."

A native of Connellsville, Pa., Hart was named as Pitt's 25th head football coach. He came to Pitt from the United States Naval Academy where for two seasons he served as defensive backfield coach. In addition to his coaching duties, Dave also had the position of Administrative Assistant to the Head Coach.

Prior to joining the Navy staff, Hart was head defensive coach at the University of Kentucky from 1962-63. Before that he spent 11 years as a head coach in Pennsylvania high schools. He coached three years at Hurst High School in Mt. Pleasant, Pa., and 11 years at Johnstown High School where he also served as Director of Athletics. His Hurst High teams compiled a 23-6 record and his Johnstown teams had a 63-12-3 log for a total head coaching record of 86-18-3. At Johnstown, his 1958 team won the Class "AA" championship with an 11-0 mark and at one time they achieved a record 27 straight unbeaten games.

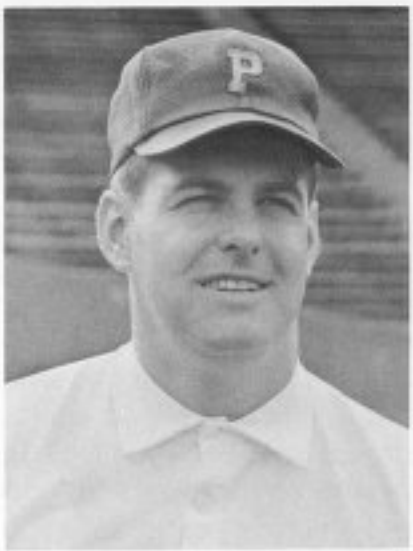
A graduate of St. Vincent College, Latrobe, Pa., in 1951, he received his Masters Degree in Education from the University of Pittsburgh in 1959. At St. Vincent he was a three-year letterman at halfback, captaining an unbeaten team his senior year to a win in the Tangerine Bowl. It still is the only unbeaten team in St. Vincent's history.

Prior to graduating from St. Vincent, Hart spent 28 months in the United States Air Force where he participated in 30 missions over Europe in World War II. He was honored with the Distinguished Flying Cross and Air Medal with Oak Leaf Clusters.

Married to his high school sweetheart, the former Patti Furtney, also of Connellsville, the couple has four children—David 18, Dick 16, Danny 9, and a daughter, Candy 6. The Hart's reside in Mt. Lebanon.



FRANK CIGNETTI

Ends

Frank Cignetti joined the Pitt staff in January of 1966 following a highly successful high school coaching career.

Following graduation from Indiana State College, Cignetti served as an assistant coach at Leechburg High School (Pa.) for two years. In 1962 he was named head coach at Leechburg and in four years his clubs rolled to a record of 32 wins and 9 losses. He culminated his high school coaching career by winning the Class A WPIAL title in 1965 with a 10-0 mark.

Raised in Apollo, Pa., Cignetti played his school football at Washington Twp. as both an offensive and defensive end. He then moved to Indiana State where he played four years as an end from 1956 through 1959. He was named to the All-State squad in both 1958 and 1959, and to the Little All-American team in 1959.

Cignetti received both his B.S. and Master degrees from Indiana State.

Married to the former Marlene Kocon, the couple has three children—Curtis, 6; Lisa, 3; and Frank, 2. The Cignettis live in Leechburg.

WALT CUMMINS

Assistant to the Athletic Director

Centers

Walter Cummins played his high school ball at Greensburg and entered the University in 1942, playing on the freshman team that year.

Before he had a chance to move on to the varsity, he entered the service and served in the Army for three years before returning to the University.

He was a regular for three years, playing end under Wes Fesler in 1946, and then was an end and defensive center for Mike Milligan in 1947 and 1948.

Cummins worked for his Masters degree in 1950-51, and then joined the staff as assistant freshman coach and assistant to the Director of Athletics in 1952.

He helps with the freshman team and will coach the centers this season.

He is married and has three children, two girls and a boy.

BILL LEWIS

Defensive Backfield

A native of Bristol, Pa., Bill Lewis was named defensive backfield coach at Pitt in January of 1966. Only 26-years-old, Bill's background and football career have been marked by success and a rapid rise to the top.

A graduate of Delhass High School in Bristol, he lettered three years in baseball and football, winning All-Lower Bucks honors in both sports his junior and senior years. He then entered East Stroudsburg State College in East Stroudsburg, Pa., where he lettered four years in football. He co-captained the team his senior year in addition to winning All-Conference honors twice. Also a pitcher-infielder on the baseball team, he signed a professional baseball contract with the Detroit Tigers following graduation in 1963 and spent two seasons in that organization.

In addition to athletics, Bill was two-time class president at East Stroudsburg and named to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities in 1963. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in Health and Physical Education. He is presently nearing completion of a Master's Degree in the same field of study.

Lewis began his coaching duties at East Stroudsburg in 1963 as quarterback-end coach, a job he held through the 1965 season. While at East Stroudsburg the team won the State College Championship in 1964 and '65. He was also head baseball coach in 1965.

He joined coach Dave Hart's Pitt staff in January, 1966, as defensive backfield coach. Lewis is responsible for recruiting Eastern Pennsylvania and also co-ordinating Pitt's scouting program.

He is married to the former Sandy Schmoyer of Pennsburg, Pa. The couple has one son —Mark, born this past July.

BILL NEAL

Defensive Coach

As defensive coach, Bill Neal gives the Pitt staff a wide background of football coaching experience.

Born December 28, 1931, in Russell, Ky., Neal's family moved to Washington, D.C., when he was 10 years old. He entered George Washington University in 1950 where he played three years as a regular at guard and tackle. He received both his B.S. and Masters of Arts degree from George Washington. While there he was a member of TKE Social Fraternity and Phi Delta Kappa National Honorary Education Fraternity.

From 1954 through 1961, Neal served as freshman football coach and assistant Athletic Director under coaches Eugene Sherman and Bill Elias at George Washington. When Elias was named head coach at the University of Virginia in 1961, Neal moved with him, serving as top assistant and defensive line coach for four years. In 1965 he moved with Elias to Navy as defensive line coach.

While at Navy he worked with Dave Hart, and when Hart was named head coach at Pitt in 1966, he persuaded Neal to join him as defensive coach of the Panthers.

Married to the former Judith Humphrey, the couple has three children—Janet, 12; Steve, 11; and Billy, five. The Neals live in Monroeville.

STEVE PETRO
Guards

A familar face on the football scene at Pitt for the last 15 years, Steve Petro is the experienced veteran on the Panther staff.

Coming to Pitt from Johnstown High School (Pa.), Petro played three years as a guard from 1936 through 1938. His first starting assignment was in the 1937 Rose Bowl when Pitt dumped Washington, 21-0. In his three years at Pitt, the Panthers compiled a 23-3-2 record against the best competition in the country.

Following graduation from Pitt he played two years of professional football for Brooklyn, while working for Bethlehem Steel Corporation. He entered the service in 1942, serving first with the Air Force and then in Intelligence. During his years in the Service, he also took time out to play football.

Upon his return to civilian life, Petro went back to the Steel Industry, serving as line coach in the Pennsylvania Professional League from 1947-48 during his evening hours. A volunteer helper during Pitt's 1950 Spring drills, he was named junior varsity coach in the Fall. In 1951 he moved to the varsity as assistant line coach, and from 1954-57 he was Pitt's freshman coach. He was moved back to the varsity staff in 1958, and then in 1965 returned to the position of freshman coach.

Married to the former Winifred Wilson, the couple has five children—Linda, 19; Mary Beth, 16; Lorraine, 13; Pamela, 9; and Steve, 8. The Petros live in Baldwin Borough.

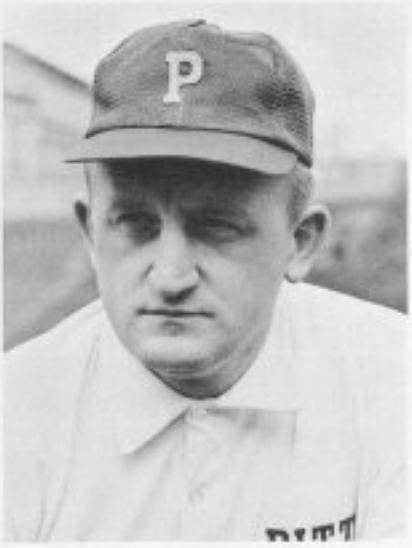
JIM ROYER
Defensive Line

Jim Royer joined the Pitt staff in January of 1966 after serving for two years as assistant offensive line coach at the Naval Academy.

He brought with him to Pitt a widely varied coaching career. Royer started as the head coach of the Ninth Marine football team in Okinawa, and then went to Navy for two years as an assistant under Wayne Hardin. Following that he spent one year as offensive line coach at the University of Buffalo and two years as offensive line coach and chief scout for Tulane University. From Tulane, he returned to his Alma Mater, the Naval Academy, to work under Elias. While at Navy he met Dave Hart and joined him in Pittsburgh when he was named head coach at Pitt.

A 35-year-old product of Woodlyn, Pa., he played his high school football at Ridley Twp. High, being named to the All-State team as a junior and selected as the Outstanding Lineman in the Greater Philadelphia area as a senior. He continued his education at the U.S. Navy Academy where he was a starting tackle in 1955 and 1956. Royer was a member of the Navy team which upset Old Miss., 21-0, in the 1955 Sugar Bowl.

He is married to the former Corine B. Jones of Silery Bay, Md. The Royers live in Pennsbury Court.



HOWARD WEYERS

Offensive Line

Howard Weyers jonied the Pitt staff in February, 1967, after a highly successful coaching career in high school and college.

Weyers, 33, was a three-sport letterman at Greenville High School (Pa.) in football, basketball and baseball. He attended Thiel College, Greenville, where he was a four-year letterman on the football squad, and also a letter-winner on the basketball and baseball teams. He received his Bachelor of Science Degree in Education in 1956 from Thiel, and then gained 27 hours of credit towards a Masters Degree in school administration at Rutgers University.

He began his coaching career as line coach at Ellwood City High School (Pa.) from 1956-58. He then moved to head coaching jobs at E. Palestine High (Ohio) from 1958-61 and Maple Heights High in Cleveland, Ohio, from 1961-64. At E. Palestine he recorded a 27-2-1 mark, and at Maple Heights his clubs had an 18-12 record for a combined mark of 45-14-1.

Weyers moved to the college ranks in 1964 when he was named as an assistant coach at Rutgers. After two years, he moved to Columbia University as an assistant. During the 1966 season, Weyers served as head offensive coach at Columbia and under his guidance the Lions moved from last in the Ivy League in total offense to second.

Married to the former Kathleen Beattie of New Kensington, Pa., the couple has two children—Teah, 10; and Howard, 8. The Weyers live in Mt. Lebanon.

STAN ZAJDEL

Offensive Backfield

Stan Zajdel, 39, was named offensive backfield coach at Pitt in March, 1967, bringing to the Panthers a wide range of football coaching background on nearly all levels of competition.

A native of Braddock, Pa., Zajdel graduated from that high school in 1945. He then played three years as a first-string halfback at St. Bonaventure University. In 1951 he served as freshman coach there, while working for his Masters Degree in Education which he received in 1952.

After a brief stint with the Pittsburgh Steelers, Zajdel moved into the coaching profession. His first job was head coach at Cardinal Mindszenty High School, Dunkirk, N.Y., in 1952-53. The following year he moved to Aquinas Institute, Rochester, N.Y. In 1955 he joined the University of Dayton as freshman and varsity end coach.

In 1960 Zajdel was named head coach at Dayton and he remained there for three seasons. He entered private business in 1962, but returned to the coaching reins in 1965 as backfield coach of the United States Merchant Marines Academy. He joined the Pitt staff in March, 1967, after serving two years as backfield coach at the Merchant Marines Academy.

Married to the former Audrey A. Carr of Braddock, the couple has seven children—Paula Marie, 10; Ruth Anne, 8; Amy, 7; Mark, 6; Scott, 5; Dana, 3; and Gloria, 1.

Former Pitt quarterback star, Dr. Darrell Lewis, was named to the Pitt football staff as Freshman Coach this past May. Dr. Lewis, who gained a reputation as one of the East's top college football scouts, will serve coach Dave Hart's staff on a part-time basis. He replaced Steve Petro who moved up to the varsity staff as guard coach.

Dr. Lewis served as a scout for Pitt from 1957-1966, and from 1958 through 1960 he helped coach the varsity on a part-time basis. A former Wilkinsburg (Pa.) High School star, he was a three-year letterwinner at Pitt from 1954-56. He helped quarterback the Panthers to the Sugar Bowl in 1955 and the Gator Bowl in 1956.

He received his Doctor of Dental Surgery from Pitt in 1961 and has set up his dentistry practice in Pittsburgh. Married, he and his wife, Dorothy, have four girls—Kimberly, 10; Deborah, 10; Heidi, 5; and Heather, 3. His wife, incidentally, was the first female cheerleader at Pitt.

KEN GEORGE
Business Manager

Ken George, Pitt's experienced business manager, is the one member of the Panther athletic department who must cringe a bit when Pitt plays at home. Ken has been selling tickets to Panther football games for 19 years, and has never seen a home game. Instead, he's completely engrossed with the sale of gate receipts and making sure the books balance for the game. He travels with the squad for away games, though.

George is a 1951 graduate of Pitt with a cum laude business administration degree. Although he started his education in 1937, he was interrupted by the war and served in Germany and France from 1943 to 1946. He was First Sergeant of the 308th Ordinance MM Company when he was discharged.

George started working in the Pitt ticket office in December, 1938, as a clerk. Drafted from an accounting firm in Downtown Pittsburgh, he has been at Pitt ever since, except for the 33 months war service. He was named Business Manager in 1949. Married, he and his wife, Anna, have four children—Richard, Roberta, Michael and Margaret.

CLYDE BARTON
Assistant to the Athletic Director

J. Clyde Barton, a graduate of the University of Pittsburgh, joined the athletic department in 1960 after serving as Alumni Secretary since 1945.

During the last year, Barton has assisted Athletic Director Frank Carver in reorganizing the Lettermen's Club. He also has worked in promoting ticket sales to Pitt athletic events.

He was graduated in 1926 and was the recipient of the George Wharton Pepper Prize. He received his Masters of Letters in 1938.

Barton is married and has one boy.

Pitt 11th Among All-Time Top Teams

In an article in Sports Illustrated last Fall, Pitt was listed as the 11th All-Time top team in the country. The Panthers have been selected to the final Top Ten rankings during 12 seasons and were national champions in 1936 and 1937. Army, ranked number 10, is the only Eastern school ahead of the Panthers. According to SI, the Top 20 teams are:

Rank	Team	Times In Final 10	National Champs	Rank	Team	Times In Final 10	National Champs

'Voice of the Panthers'

Red Donley

Jack Henry

Popular Pittsburgh area TV sportscaster, Charles "Red" Donley, and veteran sportswriter and commentator, Jack Henry, broadcast the exploits of the Pitt Panthers over one of the largest independent football networks in the East. A chain of over 25 stations hook up to beam Pitt football to Panther fans throughout the Tri-State area.

Donley, who is Sports Director of WIIC-TV in Pittsburgh, is beginning his sixth year as play-by-play man and "Voice of the Panthers." A native of Wellsburg, W.Va., he has been associated with sports broadcasting in the Tri-State area for over 20 years. Following service in the U.S. Marine Corps during WW II, Donley joined WSTV in Steubenville, Ohio, broadcasting football, basketball and baseball games. He joined WIIC-TV in 1961, and since then has become one of the most respected and best liked sportscasters in the area.

Henry has been an observer of Pitt football since the late 1920's, and his wide background compliments nicely the Pitt broadcasts. He has handled the color commentary on Pitt football for the past eight years. Henry served 14 years with the Sun-Telegraph on the sports desk, and also was sports editor at papers in Beaver Falls, Aliquippa and Steubenville. In broadcasting, he served five years as news director of KQV in Pittsburgh, and also had a nightly sports show.

Pitt Stadium—Home of the Panthers

Pitt Stadium, with a seating capacity of 57,331, is generally considered one of the finest football stadiums, spectator-wise, in the East. Every seat in the oval shaped stadium is a good one for viewing football.

Opened in 1925 at a cost of $2,125,000, the stadium originally seated 67,000. Various seats were later taken out to provide better access to all of the seats. The stadium plant itself encompasses 10 acres with an outer circumference of one-half mile. Besides the football field, facilities include intramural basketball courts, a 440-yard track and dressing rooms.

The first game was played in 1925 when Pitt defeated Washington & Lee, 28-0. During the next four seasons, the Panthers played 30 of their 34 games in the Stadium. The single-game attendance record was set in 1938 when 68,918 fans jammed every corner of the Stadium to see Pitt top Fordham, 24-13. The one-season attendance record was set in 1956 when 239,718 people watched the Panthers in five games. The average game attendance of 47,944 is also a Stadium record.

Prospectus Rundown

Lettermen:

Returning 27, of these 17 were either offensive or defensive starters last year. Ten defensive starters and seven offensive starters from last year return.

Probable Strong Spots:

Receiving corps, running backs and defensive middle.

Current Major Weakness:

Offensive line, experienced quarterback, too many starting sophomores, and general lack of depth.

Top Backs:

Top Linemen:

Top Sophomores:

Denny Ferris, tailback; Joe McCain, wingback; Gary Cramer, tailback; Bob Ellis, defensive end; Dave Magyar, center; George Medich, split end; Paul Naponick, defensive end; Fred Tolhurst, tight end.

All-East Possibilities:

Greg Keller, senior middle guard; Bob Longo, senior split end; Mike Raklewicz, senior fullback; and Dave Drake, senior defensive tackle.

All-American Possibilities:

Greg Keller, senior middle guard.

Spring Game

In a one-sided contest, the Blues (first unit) defeated the Whites, 42-6. The game showed that Pitt apparently will have a much better offense than last year, and that the Panthers will have the speed they desperately lacked last sason. Several sophomores showed well, along with some of the seasoned veterans. Fullback Mike Raklewicz picked up 133 yards in 12 carries, including a 70-yard touchdown gallop around right end. Sophomore tailbacks Denny Ferris had 39 yards in 3 carries before being injured and Gary Cramer picked up 89 yards in 22 carries. Quarterbacking remains a problem with Bob Bazylak, Frank Gustine and Jeff Barr still fighting it out for the starting job. The receiving looked strong, especially Joe McCain.

OUTLOOK FOR 1967

Notre Dame.....UCLA.....Miami (Fla.).....Syracuse.....Army.....
Navy.....Penn State.....Illinois.....Wisconsin.....West Virginia

Every time Pitt coach Dave Hart begins to feel inclined towards optimism, he glances at the 1967 Panther football schedule. Automatically, the optimism begins to fade.

Last year, Pitt's traditionally strong schedule was rated fourth toughest in the country. This season, the Panthers have replaced California and Duke on the schedule with two Big Ten schools, Wisconsin and Illinois. Hart isn't thanking the schedule maker for small favors.

If it just weren't for that monstrous schedule, Hart would feel safe in smiling at least once or twice. On paper, at least, Pitt is going to be a much improved team over the one that finished 1-9 in Hart's first season as head coach last year. A total of 27 lettermen return from that team, 17 of them starters. Add to that a group of 33 freshmen that pushed the veterans right out of starting jobs during Spring drills.

It all sounds good, but to Dave Hart the bitter memories and scars of last year's disastrous season still permeate his thoughts. Hart came to Pitt from Navy and promptly inherited one of the most inept squads in major college football. Lacking in numbers, size, speed and ability, the Panthers recorded the worst record in Pitt history.

This year, Hart has much more size, speed and quantity, and much, much more ability. The question is, does he have enough to be respectable against the likes of Notre Dame, UCLA, Syracuse, Miami, Penn State, etc.

Ten defensive and seven offensive starters return to give Hart a good nucleus to build around. What makes the picture even brighter is that quite a few of these veterans will be hard pressed to hold off the freshmen from grabbing starting jobs. In fact, seven sophomores (six of them on offense) started for the Blues in the Spring game. It may not be a case of weak veterans, either. There are several stickout soph prospects who Hart admits "must grow up real quickly or we'll be in trouble."

Chief among them are tailback Denny Ferris (6-0, 195), wingback Joe McCain (6-0, 190), defensive ends Paul Naponick (6-5, 225) and Bob Ellis (6-2, 212), tight end Fred Tolhurst (6-5, 212), offensive guard Warren Allen (6-1, 190), offensive tackle Dave Mancuso (6-4, 205), offensive center Dave Magyar (6-3, 218) and split end George Medich (6-5, 228).

Ferris is being touted as one of the best runners to enter Pitt in recent years, and he could be the key to the Panther ground attack. Last year Pitt's running game was almost nil because of the lack of speed on the outside, and poor blocking up front. Ferris gives Pitt the outside running threat, while senior fullback Mike Raklewicz and junior tailback Joe Jones, a regular last year, provide the power up the middle. Raklewicz is a bullish runner who could be one of the better fullbacks in the East. Sophomores Gary Cramer and John White should be able to provide strong back-up support in the event any of the regulars are injured. In all, the offensive backfield looks to be one of the strongest positions. (Ed. Note: The backfield outlook was clouded considerably this summer when Ferris sustained a severe eye injury while working on his summer job. A chip of cement lodged in his eye and completely cut his vision in his right eye. It wasn't known at press time whether he would be able to play this season).

Quarterbacking is a problem. Only senior Bob Bazylak has any varsity experience. In spot duty last year, Bazylak completed 15 of 44 passes for 192 yards. During Spring drills Bazylak held down the number one spot over three sophomores—Jeff Barr, Frank Gustine and Chuck Winters. Bazylak appears to be the best mechanically, and he is also the best runner. He does not have the best arm, however, and only game experience will tell if he can throw well enough to keep Pitt's offense clicking. The sophomores all do certain things well, but all of them appear to be lacking in certain other areas. Gustine has the best arm, but lacks speed and running ability. Barr is a good runner, but needs better throwing accuracy. Winters is accurate, but also quite slow. All three, of course, need experience and confidence.

In the receiving department, Pitt looks very strong. Senior split end Bob Longo has the potential to be the best in the country. The 6-4, 212-pounder has the speed, hands and the moves. Last year he set three all-time Pitt receiving records and put a good leg up on six others. Although he had a poor Spring, Longo is the key to Pitt's aerial attack. If he's sharp, Pitt will be able to move the ball through the air. Two other excellent receivers will battle it out for the wingback post. Junior Skip Orszulak and sophomore Joe McCain are both quick and both can catch the football. Orszulak is the fastest man on the squad (4.5 in the 40) and one of the finest athletes. McCain, on the other hand, has great hands and extremely quick moves. He looked outstanding in Spring drills, and Hart is expecting a big year from him. At tight end, two sophomores and a senior are in a dogfight for the starting job. Frank Hartz, a 6-2, 208-pound junior, started the Spring game, but is being hard pressed by sophomores, Fred Tolhurst (6-5, 212) and Rod Fedorchak (6-7, 233).

Defensively, Pitt should be very strong up the middle, inexperienced on the flanks and strong in the defenseive backfield. Middle guard Greg Keller could well be the best in the country. Pro scouts who watched Keller during Spring drills went away highly impressed. Several stated bluntly that by the time the '67 season starts, Keller could be the best in the country. A defensive end starter last season, Keller was

Dave Drake

Greg Keller

Skip Orszulak

moved to the middle guard spot this year to give Pitt real strength up the middle. An almost overly aggressive player, Keller has tremendous strength and the best speed on the team among the linemen.

Along the rest of the defensive front line, senior Dave Drake (6-2, 228) is a solid tackle who Hart says could be one of the best in the East if his two bad knees hold up. The other tackle will be junior Ed Whittaker (6-4, 230) who was moved to defense after starting last year at offensive tackle. Brian Bubnis (6-0, 236), who started last year, is a strong back-up man. At the defensive ends, there is potential but no experience. Sophomore Bob Ellis (6-2, 212) has one spot nailed down after a good Spring. The other spot is up for grabs between letterman Brad Littlehales (6-3, 200) and sophomore Paul Naponick (6-5, 225).

Experience is the word for the defensive backfield and linebacking corps. Two starters and two other letterwinners return for the two linebacking spots, while three regulars head the defensive backfield returnees. Ed Gallin, 5-11, 218-pound junior, and Lou Parrott, a 6-2, 195-pound junior, both started last year. In the defensive backfield corps, three senior regulars are back—Joe Curtin (5-11, 195), Mickey Depp (6-1, 196) and Paul Killian (6-0, 190). Senior Mike Elliott, who started several games at quarterback last year, has been switched to defense and will be the other starter.

All in all, Pitt fans realize Hart is still a year away from producing a winner. The rebuilding program has a year under its belt, though, and Panther opponents are going to find a much improved Pitt team this year. How many games can Pitt win? Look again at the schedule, and start counting. Use one hand.

MEET THE PANTHERS

Warren Allen

Art Alois

Bob Bazylak

WARREN ALLEN (62) Off. Guard So., 6-1, 190 Homestead, Pa.

A quick, hard-hitting blocker, Allen won himself a starting job during Spring drills . . . . . His biggest drawback is his size, which Pitt coaches hope he can build up during the off-season . . . . . He could be a three-year regular at Pitt . . . . . At Homestead High he was a two-year letterwinner in football and one in basketball . . . . . engineering.

ART ALOIS (68) Off. Guard Jr., 6-3, 228 Pottsville, Pa.

A regular last year at defensive end, Alois was switched to offensive guard to help bolster Pitt's weak blocking . . . . . Has excellent size and strength . . . . . If he gains consistency, he could make a real difference in Pitt's offensive line . . . . . At Pottsville High, Alois was an outstanding athlete, winning three letters in football, three in wrestling and two in track. He was named to the All-American, All-State and Pennsylvania Big 33 teams . . . . . Pre-Dentistry.

JEFF BARR (11) Quarterback So., 6-1, 190 Canton, Ohio

Could be the real "sleeper" among the quarterbacks . . . . . At the end of Spring drills, he was battling Frank Gustine for the number two spot . . . . . Is a fine runner and possesses a strong arm . . . . . needs to develop consistency in his throwing . . . . . An all-city and all-county choice in football at Lehman High . . . . . won two letters in football, four in baseball and one in basketball . . . . . was named the school's most valuable athlete . . . . . mathematics.

BOB BAZYLAK (17) Quarterback Sr., 5-11, 178 McKeesport, Pa.

If the season opened tomorrow, he would be the starting quarteback . . . . . A defensive halfback last season because of a back injury, he was moved to quarterback about midway through the season and had several good games . . . . . Not an outstanding thrower or runner but, mechanically, he is Pitt's best quarterback . . . . . Bazylak also has another feature going for him. As coach Hart notes, "All he knows how to do is win." . . . . . In high school he was with a big winner, and in the Big 33 game with Texas he was possibly the number one reason Pennsylvania beat the Texans . . . . . At McKeesport High he was named to the All-American, All-State, Pennsylvania Big 33 and ALL-WPIAL teams . . . . . He threw winning TD pass to another Panther, end Bob Longo, in the Big 33 win over Texas . . . . . A brilliant Dean's List student, he is studying in liberal arts.

Jeff Brown

Gary Cramer

Joe Curtin

LARRY BERASI (77) Off. Tackle So., 5-11, 228 Youngstown, Ohio

Is slated for backup work at the offensive tackle position . . . . . Has good size but must develop speed . . . . . At Cardinal Mooney High, he won three letters in football and one in track . . . . . Liberal Arts.

PAUL BERGMAN (25) Defensive Back So., 6-0, 187 University Hts., Ohio

Plagued by injuries throughout his freshman year, coaches are hoping to get a thorough look at him in Fall camp . . . . . Came to Pitt with the reputation as an outstanding runner . . . . . Will get a shot at offensive backfield in Fall camp, but will probably play mostly as defensive halfback . . . . . At Cleveland Heights High, he was named All-Scholastic in football, winning three letters in grid, three in wrestling and two in baseball. He was the State champion in wrestling . . . . . Liberal Arts.

JEFF BROWN (47) Linebacker So., 6-3, 210 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Also plagued by injuries during freshman year, a healthy Jeff Brown would be a shot in the arm to Pitt . . . . . An outstanding high school runner, he will get a shot at the fullback spot at Pitt . . . . . He will probably play linebacker as a sophomore, though, because he could be a defensive starter at that position . . . . . Was All-WPIAL and All-Kiski Valley at Plum Boro High . . . . . Won nine letters in high school, three in football, three in track, two in basketball and one in volleyball . . . . . Liberal Arts.

BRIAN BUBNIS (63) Def. Tackle Sr., 6-0, 236 Mt. Carmel, Pa.

A defensive starter last year, he is one of the strongest players on the team . . . . . A barrell-chested individual, the coaches say he has "arms like legs, and legs like people." . . . . . Has experience and strength, but lacks only lateral movement . . . . . Should battle for a starting job . . . . . Has great desire . . . . . At Mt. Carmel High he earned three letters in football and three in track . . . . . Also attended Fork Union Military Academy in Virginia and was named first-team All-State . . . . . Economics.

GARY CRAMER (26) Tailback So., 5-10, 192 Belle Vernon, Pa.

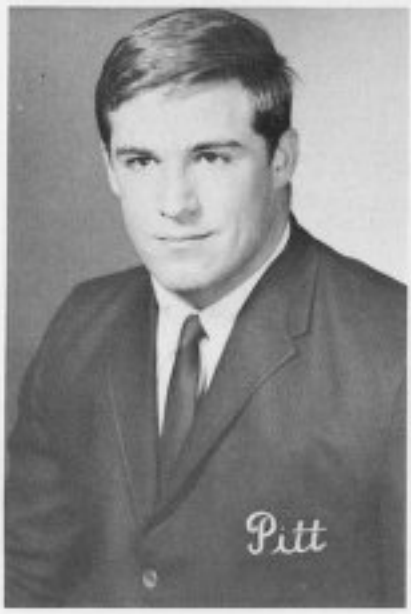
One of the big surprises of Spring drills, Cramer had an exceptionally fine Spring game, gaining 89 yards in 22 carries. The performance gave him the second-team tailback spot, where he should see plenty of action this Fall . . . . . At Belle Vernon High he won three letters in football, three in basketball and four in baseball . . . . . Liberal Arts.

JOE CURTIN (29) Defensive Back Sr., 5-11, 195 Pittsburgh, Pa.

A hard-nosed performer, he loves to hit and tackle . . . . . Was a regular last year and will hold down the same spot this season . . . . . At Brentwood High he was an All-WPIAL and All-Conference halfback . . . . . Could play offense for Pitt . . . . . Won four letters in football, two in basketball and two in track in high school . . . . . Liberal Arts.

Mickey Depp

Dave Drake



Greg Ellis

MICKEY DEPP (19) Defensive Back Sr., 6-1, 196 Puxsutawney, Pa.

Considered one of the finest, all-around athletes on the team . . . . . Was a regular last two years, and will start again this season . . . . . Hits hard and has good moves to go with his experience . . . . . Could play quarterback if the need arises . . . . . At Punxsutawney High he was selected All-State in both football and basketball . . . . . Won three letters in football and basketball and four in track . . . . . Liberal Arts.

DAVE DIBBLEY (36) Defensive Back So., 6-0, 184 New Castle, Pa.

Could play either offensive end or defensive back . . . . . Has fine hands and good speed . . . . . Loves contact . . . . . At Shenango High he won the Athlete-Scholar Award and was named All-WPIAL . . . . . Won three letters in football, three in basketball and three in track . . . . . Engineering.

DAVE DRAKE (65) Def. Tackle Sr., 6-2, 228 Ambridge, Pa.

If his two bad knees hold up, could be one of the finest tackles in the East . . . . . A two-year regular, he should help make the Panther defensive middle a strong point . . . . . Has great desire, and the ability to go with it . . . . . At Ambridge High he was All-Conference, All-State, and Pennsylvania Big 33. He won three letters in football . . . . . His father is a high school coach . . . . . Pre-Dentistry.

MIKE ELLIOTT (16) Defensive Back Sr., 5-11, 192 Mesa, Ariz.

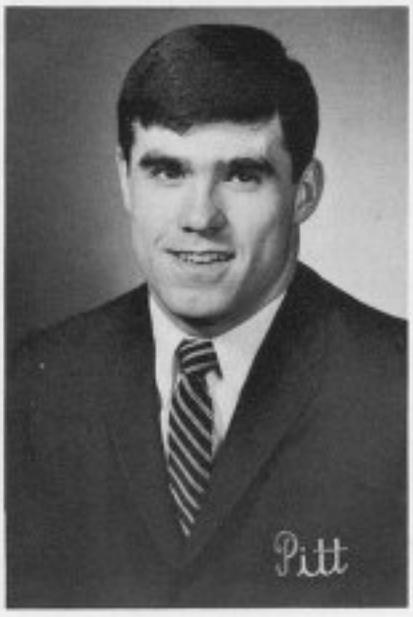
Started at quarterback one game last year, but was switched to defensive halfback during Spring drills . . . . . A hard-hitter, he won a starting job during Spring drills . . . . . At Mesa High he was first-team All-State quarterback in Arizona . . . . . Won three letters in football, two in baseball, two in basketball and one in swimming . . . . . Pre-Med.

GREG ELLIS (71) Off. Tackle Jr., 6-2, 232 Aldan, Pa.

Has the potential to be one of Pitt's finest offensive linemen . . . . . Has good size and excellent speed for a lineman . . . . . Started half of the games last year as a defensive tackle . . . . . Was moved to offensive line this Spring, and should win a starting job offensively before Fall camp breaks . . . . . Set all-time Pitt shot put mark this past Winter with heave of 52-7 . . . . . At Landsdowne-Aldan High he was All County, All-Philadelphia Scholastic and honorable mention All-State . . . . . In track he was the State shot put champion . . . . . He won three letters in football and three in track . . . . . Physical Education.

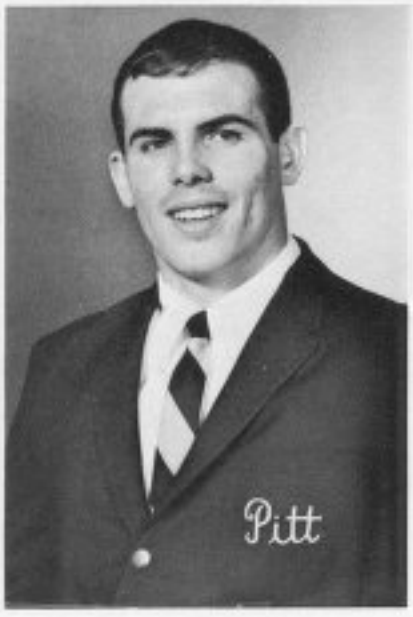
BOB ELLIS (86) Def. End So. 6-2, 212 Altoona, Pa.

One of two sophomores who will probably man the defensive end posts for Pitt this season . . . . . A big, strong player, Ellis impressed the coaching staff during Spring drills that he will be able to handle the job despite his inexperience . . . . . A sprained back muscle during the final week of drills, hampered his progress somewhat . . . . . At Altoona High he won three letters in football and one in basketball . . . . . Liberal Arts.



Dennis Ferris

Ed Gallin



Frank Gustine

ROD FEDORCHAK (81) Tight End So., 6-7, 233 Monongahela, Pa.

Tallest member of the team at 6-7 . . . . . Will battle two other sophomores and a junior for the starting tight end position . . . . . Suffered head injury during freshman game last season, and it hampered his progress during Spring drills . . . . . Won three letters in football and three in basketball at Monongahela High . . . . . Liberal Arts.

DENNIS FERRIS (22) Tailback So., 6-0, 195 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Touted as one of the finest running backs at Pitt in recent years . . . . . Has all the tools to be a great one . . . . . During Spring drills, he appeared to be the break-away threat that Pitt desperately lacked last season . . . . . Does just about every thing well . . . . . Needs only to polish up a little on his blocking . . . . . An eye injury sustained during the summer could hinder his career . . . . . If he is whole, Pitt should have a fine backfield . . . . . At North Catholic High he was named to the All-Catholic team . . . . . He earned two letters in football and was named the school's MVP . . . . . Nicknamed "Pinto" at Pitt because of his exceptional running ability . . . . . Liberal Arts.

ED GALLIN (43) Linebacker Jr., 5-11, 218 Buffalo, N.Y.

Came on strong last season, and should be one of Pitt's best linebackers . . . . . Started last season, and will start again this year . . . . . A fullback in high school, he was All-Buffalo for two years and All-Western New York his senior year . . . . . Was honorable mention All-American at Riverside High . . . . . Won three letters in football, three in track and one in track . . . . . Holds the Buffalo shot put record . . . . . Liberal Arts.

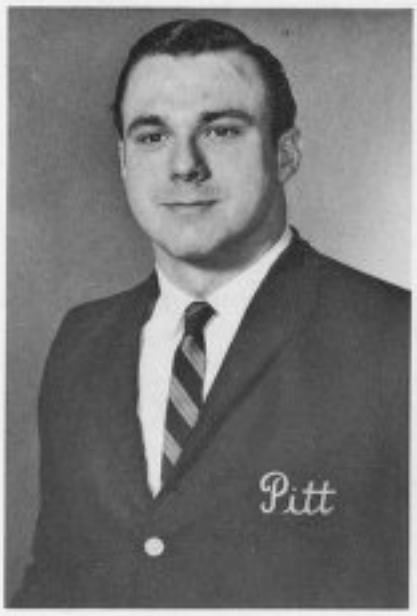
FRANK GUSTINE (18) Quarterback So., 6-1, 190 Pittsburgh, Pa.

One of the top three quarterbacks battling for a starting job . . . . . Has probably the best throwing arm among the quarterbacks . . . . . Needs to improve on his running . . . . . Son of Frankie Gustine, former All-Star third baseman for the Pittsburgh Pirates . . . . . At Canevin High he won 11 letters in football, basketball and baseball . . . . . All-City in football and basketball his junior and senior year . . . . . Named honorable mention All-East by Sport magazine his senior year in high school . . . . . An outstanding baseball and basketball player also . . . . . Liberal Arts.

FRANK HARTZ (83) Tight End Jr., 6-2, 208 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Started several games at tight end last year, and was the starting end for the Blue unit in the Spring game . . . . . Has good hands but lacks outstanding size and speed . . . . . Caught eight passes for 70 yards and one touchdown last year . . . . . At Neville High, he won three letters in football, four in baseball and three in basketball . . . . . Named honorable mention All-WPIAL . . . . . Civil Engineering.

Joe Jones



Greg Keller

Paul Killian

TERRY HOOVER (96) Linebacker Sr., 6-1, 208 Curwensville, Pa.

A part-time starter last season, he will have his hands full trying to keep a starting job this season . . . . . Missed Spring drills because he participated in NCAA wrestling championships . . . . . Pitt's 191-pound varsity wrestler . . . . . At Curwensville High he was All-Distirct in football and wrestling . . . . . Earned three letters in football, three in wrestling and three in baseball . . . . . Anthropology.

CHUCK HUTCHKO (54) Center So., 6-1, 195 New Eagle, Pa.

Will battle for the number two center position . . . . . Lacks good size but is quick . . . . . At Monongahela High was named All-State, All-W?IAL and All-Conference . . . . . Won three letters in football and two in soccer . . . . . Engineering.

JOE JONES (42 Tailback Sr., 5-11, 205 Harrison, N.J.

Was a surprise starter last year and ended up the team's second-leading rusher . . . . . Had an outstanding game against Notre Dame when he picked up 90 yards rushing against the best defensive line in the country . . . . . Was named to Notre Dame's first-team All-Opponent squad . . . . . A strong runner, he should alternate with Denny Ferris in the first-team backfield . . . . . At Harrison High he was named to the All-State and All-County squads for two years . . . . . Won four letters in football . . . . . Liberal Arts.

Year	Att.	Yds.	Net Yds.	Avg.	TDs
1966	97	328	273	2.8	1

GREG KELLER (51) Middle Guard Sr., 6-3, 220 Cleveland, Ohio

Could be the finest middle guard in the country before the end of the season . . . . . Started at defensive end last year but moved to middle guard and middle linebacker this Spring to bolster the middle of Pitt's defensive line . . . . . Pro scouts who watched Spring drills considered him one of the finest football players in the country . . . . . Loves to demolish runners and would rather run somebody over than go around them . . . . . Only drawback is almost over-aggressive style of play . . . . . An English major, he wants to be a writer . . . . . Has excellent speed . . . . . Loves to travel and one of his hobbies is hitchhiking . . . . . Extremely strong, he can dead-lift nearly 800 pounds . . . . . At St. Ignatius High he earned two letters in football and two in track . . . . . Was All-City in football . . . . . English.

PAUL KILLIAN (30) Defensive Back Sr., 6-0, 190 Tarentum, Pa.

A starter last year, he should hold down the same spot again this year . . . . . Is not afraid to hit . . . . . A brilliant student, he carries a 3.5 average . . . . . At Tarentum High he won three letters in football and two in tennis . . . . . Was All-Conference in football . . . . . Pre-Med.

Bob Longo

Dave Magyar

Joe McCain

BRAD LITTLEHALES (80) Def. End Jr., 6-3, 200 Wheeling, W.Va.

Has great desire . . . . . Will battle sophomore Paul Naponick for the starting defensive end job . . . . . At Wheeling Central Catholic High he won three letters in football, four in track, two in basketball and one in tennis . . . . . Was All-City in football . . . . . Political Science.

BOB LONGO (82) Split End Sr., 6-4, 212 Pittsburgh, Pa.

Could hold nearly every Pitt receiving record before the season ends . . . . . Set three Pitt records last year of 11 recptions in one game (UCLA), 732 yards for a season and 46 receptions in one season . . . . . Has a good leg up on six other Panther receiving marks . . . . . Could be, without question, the finest split end in the country . . . . . Has all the equipment . . . . . Great hands, excellent speed and outstanding moves . . . . . Had a bad Spring, but is a game ballplayer . . . . . Named first-team ECAC All-East last year . . . . . If Longo has a good year, Pitt could surprise a lot of people . . . . . One of the most sought-after players in the country his senior year at Baldwin High . . . . . Won two letters in football, two in basketball and one in track . . . . . Can run the 100 under 10 flat . . . . . Economics.

A two-year letterwinner, he had a strong season at offensive center last year . . . . . Played excellent ball against Notre Dame and Penn State . . . . . Named to Notre Dame's first-team All-Opponent squad . . . . . Switched to offensive tackle during Spring drills to give Pitt better blocking strength in the line . . . . . At Penn Hills High he was All-State, All-WPIAL, Pennsylvania Big 33 and honorable mention All-American . . . . . Lettered one year in football . . . . . Political Science.

PAUL NAPONICK (88) Def. End So., 6-5, 225 Irwin, Pa.

One of the most sought-after high school players in the country his senior year at Norwin High . . . . . Exceptionally strong and has good football sense . . . . . Once he gains a little experience, he should be an outstanding defensive football player . . . . . Will battle Brad Littlehales for the starting job . . . . . At Norwin he was named All-State, Pennsylvania Big 33 and All-Foothills Conference in football . . . . . Also an outstanding basketball player he was All-Section, All-County, All-WPIAL and All-State in basketball . . . . . Won two letters each in football and basketball . . . . . Liberal Arts.

Skip Orszulak

Lou Parrott

George Pribish

SKIP ORSZULAK (21) Wingback Jr., 6-2, 196 West Mifflin, Pa.

Could be an outstanding player if he breaks the injury jinx that hampered him during last season and also in Spring drills . . . . . A highly talented runner and receiver, he has the speed and hands to play second fiddle to nobody . . . . . If he's healthy, he should start someplace . . . . . Could play split end . . . . . Is highly strung and isn't afraid to do anything . . . . . Nicknamed "The Wild Man" . . . . . At West Mifflin North he was All-Ameircan and All-State in football, All-State in track and All-WPIAL in basketball . . . . . Runs the 100 under 10 flat . . . . . Game Notes: After winning one Rose Bowl championship and being upset in the voting for the second appearance in a row, UCLA faces somewhat of a rebuilding year . . . Coach Tommy Prothro's charges were ranked fifth in the country last year . . .
UCLA will build around possibly the best player in the country this year—quarterback Gary Beban . . . Last year against Pitt, Beban completed 8 of 13 passes for 100 yards and 1 touchdown. He also rushed for 77 yards and two scores . . . Pitt will be meeting UCLA for the ninth time . . . UCLA evened the series at 4-4 last season by destroying the Panthers, 57-14 . . . In last year's one-sided contest, UCLA took a 29-0 halftime lead before Pitt got on the scoreboard . . . Pitt will visit UCLA in 1968.

Game Notes: Illinois returns regulars in all but five positions from a 1966 club which was 4-6 for the the year, but was 4-3 and tied for third in the Big Ten. Lettermen are back at every position but one offensive and one defensive guard . . . Pitt hasn't beaten Illinois since the series began in 1943 . . . Illinois won that first game, 33-25, and then proceeded to win four others, all by impressive margins . . . Pitt has been outscored in the five-game series, 142-43 . . . New Illinois coach Jim Valek had a unique approach to his job when he was hired to take over from Pete Elliott. "We'll do things pretty much the same as last year," Valek told the press. "It will be easier for me to learn Illinois' way than for all the players and coaches to learn my system."

Game Notes: The game last season between these two arch-rivals was another in a long line of thrillers . . . Pitt won the contest but had to stop W.V. on the Panther two-yard line as the clock ran out . . . Garrett Ford had a big day last year, rushing for 153 yards and one TD. Mike Raklewicz countered on the Pitt side with 97 yards rushing . . . This will be the 60th meeting between these two schools with Pitt holding a commanding lead, 42-16-1 . . . Today's game will be Homecoming at Morgantown, and that fact coupled with the natural rivalry should make for a rousing contest.

Game Notes: Pitt and Wisconsin have met twice on the gridiron with the Panthers winning both contests in 1937 and 1938 . . . John Coatta, a 1953 graduate of Wisconsin, is starting his first season as head coach of the Badgers . . . Of the 25 returning lettermen, halfback Wayne Todd and end Tom McCauley are likely to give Pitt the most trouble. Todd rushed for 480 yards in 128 carries last season, including 118 yards against Purdue. McCauley nabbed 46 passes for 689 yards and three touchdowns. He caught eight passes against Illinois . . . This will be a one-game stand between these two schools. Wisconsin does not appear on the Panther schedule during the next ten years.

Game Notes Miami fans are looking for an improved team this year, and that can only spell deep trouble for Hurricane opponents. Last year the team ended up ninth in the country, won the Liberty Bowl, and defeated teams that participated in the Rose, Cotton and Orange Bowls . . . Miami returns 34 lettermen and 41 of the 54 men who saw action on offense and defense a year ago . . . All-American end Ted Hendricks is being hailed as the greatest all-time football player in 41 years of University of Miami football history . . . Ten of 12 backs return from last year's team, including the first-team backfield . . . All this, from a team which overpowered Pitt, 38-14, in a hot, muggy night in the Orange Bowl last season . . . This will be the 13th meeting between these two schools, Pitt holding a 6-5-1 lead . . . Pitt will visit Miami next year.

Game Notes: This game will give Pitt coach Dave Hart his second chance at beating his former boss, Bill Elias . . . Last year, after coming from Navy to Pitt, Hart watched the Panthers play one of their worst games of the season . . . In that game, Navy held Pitt to only two first downs rushing on just 41 yards . . . Navy defensive end Bill Dow and split end Rob Taylor were first-team All-East choices a year ago . . . Taylor holds virtually all Naval Academy pass receiving records. He scored on a 57-yard pass against Pitt last year . . . Pitt hasn't beaten Navy since the 1961 game in Pitt Stadium. Over that span, Navy has four wins and one tie . . . Today's game was originally scheduled for Annapolis, but was switched to Pittsburgh because of scheduling difficulties at the Academy . . . Panther split end Bob Longo had a good day against Navy last year, nabbing six passes for 83 yards.

Game Notes: Syracuse has lost All-American Floyd Little, but fullback Larry Csonka could well be the best at his position in the country . . . Pitt held Little to just 43 yards rushing last year, but Csonka picked up 76 . . . Syracuse held Pitt to a total rushing yardage of just nine yards . . . Csonka needs less than 900 yards to break Little's career rushing total . . . He rushed for better than 100 yards in five of 10 games and followed that with 114 yards against Tennessee in Gator Bowl . . . Syracuse won Lambert Trophy last year, was 7th in nation in rushing defense, 12th in rushing offense and 15th in total defense . . Csonka was ninth in rushing . . . Excluding Baylor, which Syracuse has met only twice, Pitt is the only "regular" opponent on the '67 schedule that holds edge on Syracuse in all-time series, 11-9-2.

Game Notes: Pitt held Notre Dame to a slim 7-0 halftime lead in stunning fashion last season, but the Irish fire-power broke loose in the second half to turn the game into a rout . . . Tailback Joe Jones, who gained 90 yards rushing, and center Tom Mitrakos were chosen on Notre Dame's first-team All-Opponent squad . . . The Irish hold a commanding 21-11-1 lead in the series which started in 1909 . . . ND has won five of the last six contests played . . . Pitt has played only Penn State and West Virginia more times than Notre Dame . . . The two schools are scheduled to meet on the gridiron for the next ten years . . . The Pitt and ND frosh meet next week (Nov. 17) at Pitt Stadium . . . ND All-American quarterback candidate, Terry Hanratty, is a former Pennsylvania Big 33er from Butler, Pa.

Game Notes: State is expecting one of its best teams in recent years . . . Junior halfback Bob Campbll broke several soph records last season, and could be one of State's best running backs in years . . . Against Pitt last year, Campbell rushed for 137 yards and accounted for three touchdowns . . . He was named the most valuable player in the game . . . Bob Longo, Pitt split end, will be looking for his third "big" game against the Lions. As a sophomore, Longo led the Panthers to an upset, 30-27, win, and last year as a junior he caught seven passes for 147 yards and one TD . . . This will be the 67th meeting between these two rivals, Pitt holding a 35-28-3 lead in the series.

Seventy-Six Years of Panthers

Pitt football began when the University was known as the Western University of Pennsylvania in 1890, but the Panthers did not begin their march into the front line powers for another decade.

In 1904 the Western University of Pennsylvania eleven, had its first winning streak. Sparking this team was Joe Thompson, World War I fame.

He took over as coach after his graduation, and in 1910 turned out an undefeated, untied, and unscored on eleven.

In 1914 under Joe Duff, brother of the former U.S. Senator, the Panthers prepared for the event of Pop Warner, by losing only one game.

Not until mid-1919 did the Blue and Gold bow in intercollegiate competition. Thirty-two consecutive victories were recorded.

The 1916 Pitt team turned up with an innovation, for which millions of football fans have since given thanks. In addition to being undefeated, the Panthers, under Warner, were the first to wear numbers.

During this period the first All-American appeared. Bob Peck in 1915 and 1916, and rated as one of the great All-Time All-Americans at center, Tom Davies, at halfback and Leonard Hilty at tackle in 1918 were some of the stars of the era.

Famous then, and more famous later, players were a big Scotch guard by the name of Jock Sutherland; the 1917 captain and end, now Dr. H. C. Carlson, for 31 years head coach of basketball at his alma mater; and Tiny Thornhill, who went on to coach Stanford's Rose Bowl teams.

Perfect seasons were out after 1919, but they still were winning years. Herb Stein, a center, joined the list of All-Americas, and Harvey Harmon played a lot of tackle.

In 1924, Jock Sutherland began a 15 year regime, which started slowly but ended with the Panthers ensconced among the mighty.

Only 20 games were lost during this period, and another 11 were tied. Eastern titles came in 1925, 1927, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1934 and 1937. Four times the Panthers showed in the Rose Bowl, winning the final game in 1937 against Washington.

All-Americas during the period were Ralph Chase in 1925 at tackle, Gibby Welch at halfback in 1927, Mike Getto at tackle in 1928, Ray Montgomery at guard and Joe Donchess at end in 1929, Jess Quatse at tackle in 1931, Warren Heller at halfback in 1932, Joe Skladany at end in 1933, Doc Hartwig at guard and George Shotwell at center in 1934, Averell Daniell at tackle in 1936, Marshall Goldberg at halfback and Tony Matisi at tackle in 1937, and Goldberg and Bill Daddio at end in 1938.

On the All-America rolls since Sutherland were Ralph Fife in 1941, Bernie Barkouskie, in 1949, and Joe Schmidt, in 1952, all guards; Eldred Kraemer, a tackle in 1952, Joe Walton, a unanimous choice at end in 1956, guard John Guzik in 1958 and end Mike Ditka in 1960.

Sutherland left in 1938 and the Pitt power fell off for the next ten years. Charley Bowser was succeeded by Clark Shaughnessy who held sway during World War II. Wes Fesler brightened the picture in 1946, and was followed by Mike Milligan who turned in the first winning teams of a decade in both 1948 and 1949.

When Milligan resigned in 1950,

Len Casanova came in to take over for that year, but left the following summer. In 1951 Athletic Director Tom Hamilton took over as head coach, and then in January of 1952 Lowell Dawson was named.

Dawson won six including Notre Dame, Army, Ohio, Indiana and Iowa among the victims, and lost three.

In 1954 ill health caused him to give up football coaching in mid-season, and Tom Hamilton took over as head coach and put the team on a winning basis.

After the season he stepped down to turn the team over to Johnny Michelosen.

A 7-3 record, featuring decisive upset wins over Duke at Durham and over West Virginia before a capacity crowd in Pittsburgh, brought a Sugar Bowl invitation, and a close defeat by Georgia Tech at New Orleans that didn't hurt the Panther's national ranking.

The Panthers went to the Gator Bowl in 1956, after a 7-2-1 season, and again lost to Georgia Tech 21-14.

In 1957, Pitt was 4-6, in 1958, 5-4-1, in 1959 finished with a 6-4 record and had a 4-3-3 record in 1960.

In 1961, Pitt was 3-7, the most disastrous record since 1951. In 1962, the record was 5-5.

In 1963, Pitt finished with a 9-1 mark and was ranked third in the country.

After losing seasons in 1964, 3-5-2, and 1965, 3-7, Michelosen was succeeded by Dave Hart.

Faced by a monstrous schedule and lacking player talent, Hart's first team in 1966 completed a 1-9 mark.

Pitt Hall of Fame Awardees

Thus far the University of Pittsburgh has had four players and one coach elected to the National Hall of Fame. Jock Sutherland, a great guard from 1914 through 1917, and Pitt's brilliantly successful coach from 1924 through 1938, was elected in 1953 being among the first coaches named.

In 1954 Bob Peck, Pitt's first All-America (center in 1915 and 1916), was elected as the first Pitt player to have his name placed on the honor roll.

In 1958, Marshall Goldberg, an All-America halfback in 1937 and an All-America fullback in 1938, was elected.

In 1965, George McLaren, an All-America fullback in 1917 and 1918, was elected.

In 1967, Herb Stein, an All-America center in 1921, was elected.

Jock Sutherland

Dr. John Bain (Jock) Sutherland was a great player and coach at Pitt.

Entering Pitt within a few years after he left his native Scotland he was a regular guard on the great Pitt teams of 1914-1917, teams that lost but one game during the entire period.

Upon graduation, with a dental degree in 1918, he went into the service, coached the Camp Greenleaf Team with the AEF, then came back to the coaching job at Lafayette. Four years later, in 1924, he replaced Pop Warner at Pitt, and after getting the foundation laid, put the Panthers back into the first line again.

There were national titles in 1927, 1929, and 1937; eastern honors in 1925, 1927, 1929, 1931, 1932, 1934, 1936, and 1937. Rose Bowl appearances in 1928, 1930 and 1933, climaxed with a win in 1937. All-Americas were turned out with regularity during this period.

Leaving Pitt in 1939, he coached Brooklyn in 1940 and 1941, then went into the Navy. Upon his return he took over the Pittsburgh Steelers, giving them their greatest days, until his very sudden death in the spring of 1948.

Bob Peck

Bob Peck was Pitt's initial first team All-America, being selected by Walter Camp in 1915 and 1916. In both of these years Pitt was undefeated, and in his sophomore year, 1914, the Panthers lost only one game.

He was captain of the 1916 Pitt team that is rated among the greatest of all time, both at Pitt and in the nation. Playing under Pop Warner, Pitt's coach during his last two years, he was a terrific roving center of the old variety, and an accurate passing center who could lead the speedy Pitt backs on the famous single and double wing attack which Warner was then perfecting.

After his graduation he moved to Culver Military Academy where he was athletic director and head coach until his sudden death in 1934.

Marshall Goldberg

Marshall Goldberg came to Pitt from Elkins, West Virginia, and for the three years of his varsity career was the most highly publicized and popular back in Pitt history. These three years, coincidental with Jock Sutherland's last three as Pitt's head coach, saw the Panthers win a national title, a Rose Bowl game, and two eastern championships.

In two years as the regular left halfback Goldberg was the leading scorer and leading ground gainer, and then, moving to fullback with the famous Dream Backfield of 1938, he became a terrific blocker and power back, despite his relative lack of weight (185). He was a defensive expert during his three years and starred at this phase when he went into pro ball.

On campus he was a member of Phi Epsilon Pi, national social fraternity, and ODK, national honorary leadership society.

Upon graduation he played pro ball and was in the insurance business in Chicago, served nearly four years as a line officer in the Navy, and then finished his pro career with the Chicago Cardinals when they won their first title. He is vice president of the Emmerman Machinery Company in Chicago.

George McLaren

George McLaren, who came to Pitt from Peabody High School, is considered the greatest fullback in the school's history.

He played four years, 1915-1918, and during this period, the Panthers compiled a 29-0 record. McLaren was captain of the 1918 team. McLaren scored 13 touchdowns in 1917, a school record, and also holds the one-season rushing mark by a Pitt fullback with 782 yards. He also holds the longest run from scrimmage, 92 yards in 1917. He was never stopped without making a gain during his intercollegiate career.

McLaren also was a member of the basketball team for two years and a performer on the track squad for two campaigns.

McLaren now resides in Baltimore, Maryland, and is retired.

Herb Stein

Herb Stein came to Pitt from Warren, Ohio, and for four years was one of the greatest offensive and defensive centers in Panther history.

A member of the great "Pop" Warner teams in 1918-21, he was named as a first-team All-American in 1921. During his four years, Pitt won 21, lost five and tied four. His brother, Russ, was also an All-American tackle at Washington & Jefferson.

Now a highly successful business executive, Stein owns and operates nine corporations. He resides in Cleveland, Ohio.

These Panthers Rambled

Here are the top Pitt ground gainers and scorers since 1914. They traveled far in picking-up yards from scrimmage, passing, kick returns, and interceptions, and they put a lot of markers on the Pitt side of the scoreboard.

Hart Offers the Future

One of the country's finest sports columnists, Roy McHugh of the Pittsburgh Press, has watched the transformation of a football program at Pitt since the day Dave Hart was hired on Dec. 6, 1965. In a column written in the Press on May 26, shortly after the finish of Pitt's Spring drills this year, McHugh analyzed Hart's impact on the Pitt scene.

By ROY McHUGH

Not long before Pitt hired Dave Hart as head football coach, Athletic Director Frank Carver observed that every candidate for the job knew the X's and O's—that what the situation demanded was leadership and enthusiasm.

On those counts, no one could fault Dave Hart who was fairly brimming over with leadership and enthusiasm. A year and a half later, he still is. Sometimes, in fact, it gets to be too much for Frank Carver.

Last Month between halves of the spring-practice game, Hart introduced the high school players he had signed to letters of intent, lining them up in front of the stands and calling out each boy's name, home town, position, weight and height.

"What did Frank Carver think of that?" Hart was asked.

"He walked out," the coach answered.

In one way, of course, what Carver walked out on resembled a livestock show. "But listen to this," Hart was saying yesterday. "I got more letters on that than on anything I've done since I came here.

"Know why?" he went on. "It keeps our hopes alive. We're at our lowest ebb, and every alumnus is looking for some spark of encouragement. We have to live on our expectations. We can't live on what we've been doing because we haven't been doing much. What can I give the alumni to bring them back? I can give them the future. That's all."

Certainly Dave Hart has an accurate idea of the way many Pitt alumni think. Shortly after the spring game, a man called this paper and said that the three most important things in his life were his family, his job and Pitt football. "Not necessarily in that order," he added pointedly.

On an airplane the other day, Hart's seat partner looked at him keenly and asked if he was by any chance a football coach. As Hart smiled and nodded, the man said, "Are you Dave Hart?"

"He reached in his pocket," said Hart, "and took out a newspaper clipping—the list of the freshmen we're going to have. He knew them all. Seeing it in the paper revived his interest."

So Hart goes on pushing himself. The ideas gush forth and his dark eyes blaze when he talks about them. Conversing with Hart, someone once said, leaves you with an almost physical sense that your shoulder has been gripped.

He's a natural-born salesman, a natural-born recruiter. Of the 45 high school players who visited Pitt's campus this year, 33, Hart says, will enroll as freshmen next fall.

"We made a promise to ourselves and to our fans," Hart reminds you. "I went on record as saying I'd bring in the finest group that Pitt ever had, and I thing we did it.

"I still believe the kids want to play for Pitt. I know when I was going to Connellsville High School I wasn't big enough or good enough for Pitt, but Pitt meant something to me."

Yet the grind and the tension and the emotional demands are more than even a Dave Hart can take without letup. Of the long, hard winter, he says, "If I had to do it over again—retrace every step, be away from my family for all that time—I don't know . . ." And one of these days, Hart is positive, he will cut out a lot of the folderol—the introductions at halftime, the formal announcements with everyone posing for pictures that so-and-so has decided to enter Pitt.

Bear Bryant doesn't do it at Alabama, and Hart has made a study of Bear Bryant's program, which he denies is any cause for alarm. "There's a false impression about Alabama," he says. "People say, 'Oh, Alabama . . . we don't want to become an Alabama.' Sure, every kid doesn't graduate there, but every kid doesn't graduate at a lot of places. Every kid doesn't graduate in the Ivy League.

"Well, I don't expect us to become another Alabama, but we can win, we can be first-class. If I don't want that, I shouldn't be here. I would hate to hear one of our engineering professors say he didn't want Pitt to be an MIT.

"If you're a football player and you live in Alabama, the first thought in your mind is to play for Bear Bryant. We don't have that here. We're fighting not only Penn State, but everybody and his brother. Notre Dame comes in and recruits, Michigan State comes in. You don't see them down in Alabama.

"Bear Bryant sits up on that tower and he kind of directs things. He doesn't say very much, but when he does talk, everyone moves. Which is fine for Bear Bryant. It's fine if you're Ara Parseghian, and coaching at Notre Dame.

"But I'm not Bear Bryant and I'm not Parseghian and I'm never going to sit on a tower. One thing, though, I'm going to coach again. Last year was my first year as a major-college head coach and I left too many things to my staff. I was too much of a supervisor and not enough of a coach. My staff did a good job, but I'm going to put Dave Hart back in football."

And if Pitt wins three games, Dave Hart will have had a successful season. He's running hard and he knows where the finish line is, but he started a long way behind.

Memo to Press-Radio-TV

This brochure has been prepared for the gentlemen of the working press, radio and television who have so ably covered the Pitt athletic scene in the past years. We are appreciative of their interest and attention, and it is hoped this brochure will assist them in their coverage of the 1967 Pitt football team.

Contents of this booklet and changes in personnel and plans will be supplemented before and during the season by the Sports Information Office. If you desire additional information, services, or material, contact:

DEAN BILLICK

Sports Information Director

University of Pittsburgh

P.O. Box 7436

Pittsburgh, Pa. 15213

Office Telephone: 683-2800 (Code 412)
683-2805 (after 5 p.m.)

Home Telephone: 362-4437 (Code 412)

PRESS BOX: Due to lack of space, accommodations in the press box will be furnished only to representatives of Pittsburgh district papers, and from metropolitan papers filing for Sunday editions, press services, Pittsburgh radio and TV sports commentators, and scouts from schools playing either Pitt or its opponent. Requests should be made in advance, indicating whether or not Western Union services will be needed during or after the game. Those coming to the press box should have cabs take them to Gate #23, to avoid climbing hills. This is located behind Pennsylvania Hall of the School of Medicine.

PRESS COMPLIMENTARIES: The University extends the privileges of press complimentary tickets to all daily publications in the area. These will be limited to two each paper. Applications must be received by the Monday preceding the game and the seats will be located in the best available section at the time. A check or money order made out to the University of Pittsburgh for $1.25 per ticket must accompany all requests. The Athletic Department reserves the right to refuse any request for comps. It will be possible to purchase additional seats adjoining press complimentaries by enclosing a check or money order made out to the University of Pittsburgh, and note it on your request. The prices of these tickets are $5.00 for all games except Notre Dame which is $6.00.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Sideline passes will be issued to Pittsburgh papers, news services, daily papers normally covering the opposing team, and student publications of the two schools. Photographers may work in front of the bench, but cutline writers must stay behind the line and obey the instructions of the officer detailed to the area. Space in the photographers stand is reserved for newspapers in the same manner as field passes, and also for newsreel and game movie cameramen. This space must be requested in advance to insure adequate space. Field photographers should enter Gate #3. Photographers covering from the stand should use Gate #9.
